Unpack This Week's Gospel

Unpack the Gospel: Matthew 3:13–17

This wonderful feast of the Baptism of the Lord is part of a triptych of mysteries in the mind of the Church. In the Liturgy of the Hours for the celebration of the Epiphany, the antiphon for the Canticle of Mary (for Vespers or Evening Prayer) says, “Three mysteries mark this holy day: today the star leads the Magi to the infant Christ; today water is changed into wine for the wedding feast; today Christ wills to be baptized by John in the river Jordan to bring us salvation.”

That prayer suggests that the mystery of the magi celebrated last Sunday on the Epiphany is continued in another “epiphany” in this feast of the Baptism of the Lord. That word in the Greek means “a showing forth” and the thing shown here is the Christological mystery of our faith, that Jesus is the Incarnate Son of God and the second Person of the Most Holy Trinity. All three divine Persons are present in the tableau that we see both here and in Luke’s gospel, the voice of the Father, the dove as a sign of the Holy Spirit and, of course, the presence of the Son in the waters of the Jordan. This revelation that the one God is a loving communion of three Persons that Jesus came to disclose is what the Catechism calls the “central mystery of Christian faith and life” (CCC 234). By our Baptism we enter that mystery of the Son, overshadowed by the Spirit we become the favored sons and daughters of the Father.

FORMED

Each prayer and action in the Rite of Baptism is filled with spiritual significance, beauty, and grace. By understanding more clearly what's happening, we'll have a greater appreciation for why Baptism takes us further into a life-changing relationship with God.

Session 2 - The Rite Explained

WATCH ON FORMED.ORG

POWERED BY THE AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE

Watch the short Opening the Word video on FORMED. Then reflect and discuss these questions with a friend or use as journal prompts:

1. What does it mean to you that Jesus healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, and raised the dead both as God and as man?
2. At our baptism and confirmation, we are anointed to carry out a unique mission that can never be fulfilled by anyone. Write down some ideas about how you are fulfilling your mission.

PRAYER & RESOLUTION

PRAYER:

In the second reading from Paul, we are told that “after the baptism that John preached...God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.” Now apply those words to yourself: “After my baptism, God anointed me with the Holy Spirit and power. I go about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God is with me.” What do you feel as you hear those words applied to you? Do you truly believe that you have been anointed by the Holy Spirit? Do you trust that God is with you? Let the truth of this statement take root in your heart and say to yourself, “God is truly with me.”

RESOLUTION:

This week, trusting that you have been anointed and empowered by the Holy Spirit through your Baptism and Confirmation, try your best to explain what the Church really teaches the next time you hear someone misunderstand or even misrepresent a Catholic doctrine.

Registering for FORMED is easier than ever:

Ways to Give Donations to our Church in 2020: There are a few ways to give to Queen of All Saints to help us with our many ministries and programs. Your family can donate through our Online Giving. It's very easy to register to give weekly, monthly, etc. Visit our website and click on the Donate tab at the very top of the page. Once you are on the page, click the blue Donate button and you will be taken to the registration page. Also, you can use our Weekly Contribution Envelopes. The 2020 envelopes have arrived—please only take a box if your name is on the label on the top of the box, which is highlighted. If you would like to use envelopes in 2020 and there is no box for you on the table, OR if you would like to give online and need help or have questions, please call Debra Smith for more information. Any family that is registered in the parish and gives online or is using envelopes, may request a tax contribution at year end, as we keep track of your donations for you for tax purposes.

Formas de dar donaciones a nuestra Iglesia en este 2020: Hay algunas maneras de dar a la parroquia de Reina de Todos los Santos para ayudarnos con nuestros muchos ministerios y programas. Su familia puede donar a través de nuestra Donación en línea. Es muy fácil registrarse para dar semanalmente, mensualmente, etc. Visite nuestro sitio web y haga clic en la pestaña Donar en la parte superior de la página. Una vez que esté en la página, haga clic en el botón azul Donar y lo dirigirá a la página de registro. Además, puede usar nuestros Sobres de contribución semanal. Llegaron los sobres del 2020; solo tome una caja si su nombre está en la etiqueta en la parte superior de la caja, que está resaltada. Si desea utilizar sobres en 2020 y no hay una caja para usted en la mesa, por favor de no tomar ninguna caja puesto que esas cajas ya están destinadas a una familia. Llame a la oficina para que le asignen una a usted o si desea donar en línea y necesita ayuda o tiene preguntas, llame a Debra Smith para obtener más información. Cualquier familia que esté registrada en la parroquia y dona en línea o esté usando sobres, puede solicitar una contribución de impuestos al final del año, ya que llevamos un registro de sus donaciones para fines fiscales.
